SMALL GRANTS TO HELP CELEBRATE AGE

The organisers of the Celebrating Age Festival 2009 would like to offer local groups and organisations the opportunity to organise exciting and interactive activities for older people in their local areas in the week running up to the festival (Monday 28 September - Friday 1 October) and apply for a small grant to facilitate this. For more details and to download a grant application form visit <http://www.voscur.org/node/4767>

BE PART OF THE SUSTAINABLE COMMUNITIES ACT PANEL

Voscur want nominations from people who would like to take part in the Sustainable Communities Act panel. The panel will be made up from a cross section of the Bristol population and will consider the suggestions made by the public. For more information or to complete a nomination form to be considered for the panel visit:

<http://www.voscur.org/brispartnership#SCAP> or contact Matthew Symonds at Voscur on (0117) 909 9949 or email: <mailto:matthew@voscur.org>

CAMPAIGN TO SAVE STUDIO UPSTAIRS

Studio Upstairs is continuing its 'Save Our Studio' campaign to secure long-term funding following Local Authority funding cuts. Should Studio Upstairs be forced to close its doors, it would mean a tragic loss to the arts, health and education in the region. Keep your eyes peeled for various fundraising events and exhibitions over the coming months! If you'd like to donate to the campaign please contact <mailto:bristolstudio@studioupstairs.org.uk> or call 0117 930 0314

www.studioupstairs.org.uk

BRISTOL SHOPPING NOW MORE ACCESSIBLE

Bristol Shopmobility's new unit in Cabot Circus Car Park is now open for the hire of manual and powered wheelchairs and scooters. You can hire by the hour to go shopping in Broadmead and Cabot Circus or for longer term to go on holiday, attend an event or recover from an operation. Available to young or old, permanently or temporarily disabled people. For more information contact 0117 9559083.

YOUNG PEOPLE GET TOGETHER IN KINGSWESTON AND AVONMOUTH

Young people from Kingsweston and Avonmouth are preparing to depart Bristol on a weekend residential, taking part in activities that will help them to bond as a group and form a local Youth Forum. They will explore how young people can influence the work of the Neighbourhood Partnership and plan the next partnership meeting where they will present young people's issues and views to the wider community. For more details contact Sam Parker on (0117) 922 3029 or email sam.parker@bristol.gov.uk

SOUTHVILLE SUMMER SCHOOL

The Southville Centre will be hosting a Summer School during August and are currently taking bookings from tutors who are interested in running courses. Special room hire packages are available for Summer School tutors. Special packages are also available to help market your course. For further information on availability, rates and catering please contact the Southville Centre on 0117 9231039.

NEW SHOP IN KNOWLE WEST

A new Salvation Army charity shop has opened at 25 Filwood Broadway. The shop will help to provide funds for the Knowle West branch of The Salvation Army by selling good quality second hand clothes, books, toys, bri-a-brac and bedding. If you are in the area we would love to sell things to you or accept your donations. For more information contact:
Deborah.Oughton@salvationarmy.org.uk

BRISTOL'S LOCAL FOOD UPDATE

A new local food newsletter has been produced to help community groups and food-related projects in Bristol to share information about what they're doing, to promote courses, events, training & skill-sharing, and advertise jobs & volunteering positions. The current May-June issue focusses on the pressures on Bristol's Green Belt. To have future issues of the newsletter delivered to your inbox, send an email to bristollocalfood@googlemail.com with a subscription request or download a copy at: <http://www.bristollocalfood.co.uk/>

STREET PARTIES ROCK COMMUNITIES

Street parties are a great way for neighbours to meet, and most people join in right outside their house. Bristol is already the street party capital of the UK, but there is room for a lot more. Now is a good time to plan an event for the balmy weather of September. The top tips are; keep it simple, involve all ages and avoid money, insurance and licences. Streets Alive is a national charity helping residents with advice on street parties. For more tips and advice visit: <http://www.streetparty.org.uk>

AVON FIRE & RESCUE RESTRUCTURES TO REDUCE COMMUNITY RISK

Bristol has six full-time Fire Stations spread across the city. As well as dealing with incidents that require a blue light response, the staff at each Fire Station are actively engaged in tackling a number of community issues that impact upon neighbourhood cohesion and community well-being. Community Safety Sectors have been introduced which are new geographic areas where each stations will be responsible for driving down community risk. Making this change will greatly improve how Avon Fire and Rescue work with partners to enhance community safety. For more details email Kevin Keeler, Bristol Unitary Manager <mailto:kevin.keeler@avonfire.gov.uk>

YOUTH THEATRE STUDIO SEEKS NEW MEMBERS

Bristol Youth Theatre Studio is auditioning new members in readiness for the next production. The group meets on Saturdays between 4.45pm - 8.15pm, in Westbury on Trym. Age group 14 -20, young members need no theatrical experience, but must be prepared to work hard! There are also vacancies at present in the junior class, age 8-13 years. This class meets on Thursday between 4.30 – 6pm in Horfield. For more information contact Wendy Sparey on 0117 951 4432.

SUPPORT FOR MENTAL HEALTH CARERS

Bristol Rethink Carers Service is offering support for anyone who has concerns about another person's mental wellbeing. Anything from a chat over the phone to one-to-one meetings in which the impact of caring can be explored in a personalised way is available. A confidential support group provides an opportunity to meet and chat with other carers in a similar situation whilst getting support for yourself. For more information call 0117 353 2042.

PROBLEMS WITH NEIGHBOURS IN YOUR NEIGHBOURHOOD?

Bristol Mediation is an independent charity that provides a free* neighbour mediation service. Mediation is a way to help neighbours sort out any disagreements with the help of trained mediators. The process is voluntary and confidential. Mediation can help with a variety of problems including noise, children's behaviour, fences, hedges and boundaries disputes, animals, parking, and low levels of abusive behaviour. To find out more, please contact the casework team on 0117 9350521 or email casework@bristol-mediation.org (*dependent on your housing status)

CHILDREN'S HALF TERM ACTIVITIES AT TOBACCO FACTORY THEATRE!

For 11-13 year olds there are day schools in working with masks and stage combat (Monday 25 & Tuesday 26 May, 10am - 4pm, £25 each) and the Mugenkyo Taiko drummers are offering an introduction to Taiko drumming for 7-11 year olds (Wednesday 27 May, 2pm - 4pm, £10). The Ugly Duckling returns to the theatre for 2 days only, and there's a post-show activity session for ages 4-6 (Saturday 30 May, 4.45 - 5.30pm, £3). Full details of all half term activities can be found at www.tobaccofactorytheatre.com

SOLAR PANELS LIGHT UP COMMUNITY BUILDING

The largest array of solar panels in Bristol has been installed on the roof of the Vassall Centre. The panels will generate enough electricity to power the communal areas in the Vassall Centre. Local company Solar Sense installed the panels. Barclaycard Breathe project supported the project with £30,000 as match funding for the funds offered by the Low Carbon Buildings Programme. For more information, contact David Outtram on 0117 965 1707.

SO DO YOU WANT TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE TO WHERE YOU LIVE?

Are you up for doing something? Working with other like-minded people who want to improve the community where they live? Safer Bristol is launching the Community Transformers programme where a small investment of money, support and coaching from a Community Safety Officer can make a big difference to you and your local community. Local groups and individuals are invited to send in their ideas to Mark Parry at Safer Bristol by Friday 29 May . Applications will be evaluated the following week. Contact Mark Parry on 0117 904 2212 or email <mailto:mark.parry@bristol.gov.uk> for an outline bid form.
