

Come and explore the Avon Valley and Brislington Brook

Sunday 25th April 2010 10.00am - 4.00pm

Friends of Troopers Hill will again join with the South Bristol Riverscapes Project for what has now become an annual exploration of some of the wonderful sites in our part of the Avon Valley. This guided walk takes us from Troopers Hill, St Anne's Woods, Nightingale Valley and Eastwood Farm, Beeses' Bar and Tea Gardens to catch the ferry back to Conham through Dundridge Park and back to the start at Troopers Hill.

- START AND FINISH Troopers Hill meet at 10am.
- Distance – 5 miles.
- Please bring a picnic or take the opportunity to buy lunch at Beeses' Riverside Bar and Tea Gardens. Bring plenty to drink.
- 25 pence for the ferry (one way only)
- Please wear sturdy shoes as there will be some slopes, uneven steps & nettles along the way and don't forget your wet weather gear just in case!

To book your place

email: events2010@troopers-hill.org.uk or phone Judith on 0117 955 9819

Join us for the Brislington Brook section at Somerfield car park at 11.15am.

No need to book if you are only joining us for this section.

FFi visit www.troopers-hill.org.uk or www.southbristolriverscapes.org.uk

